Pastor's Notes:

It's not difficult to notice that summer is now long past and winter is soon ahead. Most of the trees have given up their leaves for another season, there's frost on our windshields some mornings, and Daylight Savings Time is upon us. We are also coming to the conclusion of the liturgical year with Advent only a few weeks away. It is fitting that during the month of November we remember those whose lives have ended on earth, and turn our prayers to God for friends and relatives who have died. As is said in Preface I for the Dead, speaking of the faithful departed, "life is changed not ended." In addition to our many friends and relatives who have died, let us remember the countless souls who have worshiped on this little plot of ground. Many children who nuns and priests have educated in faith, couples who fell in love and married here throughout the decades, and so many whose names are unknown to us. During this month on November, let us pray:

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God,
rest in peace. Amen.

Fr. Bill
