Pastors Notes:

Dear Parishioners:

The news of the week as some of you may have already heard is that I have decided to retire from full time active ministry effective on July 1. This decision has been made after a long period of prayer. After battling this out with the Lord for 6 months, He has told me that it is the right time to do this. And I agree. As you get older, you are just not able to do everything that you used to and I am at that point in my life. I have enjoyed the last 20 years as your pastor and we have been through many joys and tears together and hopefully have grown through those experiences to be closer to the Lord. I will be taking up residence at Southgate in Shrewsbury, an over 55 active community where several other retired priests live. Fr. Prunier, the former pastor of St. Mary's, lived there for many happy and healthy years. Msgr. Collette who grew up in our parish and is related to some of you still lives there in good health. I hope to follow in their footsteps. I will be helping at some parish on weekends so I'm not quitting the priesthood by any means.

The natural question that comes to your minds is, "Who is coming to take your place?" I'll save you the trouble of asking because the answer is that I don't know. I haven't even heard any rumors. Perhaps that means we should all get started on some serious prayer that God will guide the choice and that he will send us someone who will lead us in moving forward in faith and love on the next step of our faith journey. Next Sunday is Pentecost, the feast of the coming of the Holy Spirit and of the birth of the Church. The Spirit has always been linked with guidance and wisdom in making decisions. As we prepare for Pentecost, let's join our prayers to those of the Apostles and of Mary the Mother of Jesus asking that the Spirit will guide the choice of our new Pastor. I'll be around for another seven weeks and we still have a lot of work to do together especially to run the Bazaar. Let's work hard to make it the best ever.
